

Voluntary emigration and return assistance

Support programmes for return to your country of origin

What is return and reintegration assistance?

Return and reintegration assistance is intended to help you return to your country of origin and make a fresh start there. You might be eligible for the following services:

Flight booking and travel planning

Payment of costs for luggage forwarding

Medical support during the transfer

Reintegration

Grant for qualification and education

Financial aid for a fresh start

We will gladly advise you!

Personal advice

Personal advice on voluntary return and applying for funding under the named programmes is provided by the Central Immigration Authorities (ZAB) and the Central Return Counselling Centres (ZRB), in addition to Coming Home.

The following return and reintegration programmes exist:

Federal/state return programmes

Reintegration and Emigration Programme for Asylum Seekers in Germany (REAG)/Government-Assisted Repatriation Programme (GARP) - REAG/GARP 2.0

- > Travel and transport costs
- > Travel allowance
- > Additional travel costs due to medical conditions
- > Help with making a fresh start

Bavarian Return Programme

- > Luggage forwarding
- > Personal reintegration assistance for six months
- > Business start-up grant
- > Grant for qualification and education
- > Grant for housing costs
- > Bridging allowance for up to 12 months for people in special circumstances
- > Medical support

General information on options for voluntary return can be found at www.returningfromgermany.de/en or www.lfar.bayern.de.

www.returningfromgermany.de/en

www.lfar.bayern.de

Your local advice centre:

Address box